A Note From Pastor Andrew

Winter showed up, didn't it? Though this weekend is supposed to be warmer and some snow may melt, I have read that another storm is on the way. We did have to cancel our two mid-week services and the way we let you know is via email. If for some reason you did not get the emails let us know in the office. Communication is very important and your safety is important as well. Stay safe out there and watch out for the other cars. I learned that the hard way twice in the last year. I hope some more people show up tomorrow for the water hand out. We are called to serve God's people in any way we can, if you have any other idea of how we can be the hands of God let us know.

Peace,

Pastor Andrew
